Why Me?

At the end of the day, you will have to decide why you choose this or that person. You know your needs. If you decide on me you will be getting a person who is hard working, passionate about the importance and usefulness of using video in your organization and a committed team player. At first glance, my lack of institutional learning in the realm of video production can be seen as a detriment. I believe my diversified background in business, teaching and pastoral experience will aid me in being smart about planning, able to communicate your message concisely and compassionate when dealing with the community and our talent.
